

Huda Hamid

Women Entrepreneur Advocate
Founder, Fempreneur Secrets

Huda is the founder of Fempreneur Secrets, an online community empowering women to start and grow businesses. She hopes to empower women around the world to design their life through business.

She has been nominated The Most Compassionate Womenpreneur Award in 2019, and have been invited to speak at events supported by Google Singapore and US State Department.

She started her entrepreneurship journey at 16 years, selling handmade stationery online. She was approached by local associations to conduct social media marketing courses at age 19. By the time she turned 21, she setup her digital marketing agency and began training businesses on the importance of storytelling and digital marketing for maximum growth.

Huda believes in the value of education and hopes to provide women with the knowledge and skills to help them become economically independent. One of the ways is through Fempreneur Secrets Podcast, a show that Huda hosts weekly.

During her free time, she volunteers to mentor young female leaders to achieve their desired careers.

Contact

www.fempreneursecrets.com

hello@fempreneursecrets.com

linkedin.com/in/huda-hamid

Suggested Interview Topics

- Build your authority online with social media
- 3 things you should do before firing your boss
- How do double your revenue through storytelling
- How letting go of your baggage accelerates your business growth
- Crafting the perfect self-introduction for effective networking

Suggested Interview Questions

- Why do you recommend women to not leave their full-time jobs until they are ready?
- What are the 3 things women should prepare before leaving their full-time job?
- What is the biggest hurdle new entrepreneurs face in their business?
- How does storytelling help women entrepreneurs in their business?
- What is the best way for service-based fempreneurs to market themselves?
- How should fempreneurs introduce themselves during networking events?
- What is the value of lifelong learning for women entrepreneurs, in your opinion?

As Featured On